ISAAC W. O'NEAL PASSES AT OCRACOKE

Ocracoke — Isaac Willis O'Neal, age 89, died at his home here Saturday night, September 18th. Popularly known among his relatives and friends as "Big Ike O'Neal," he was the Island's oldest citizen and the one who knew the most about Ocracoke's past. He was born here on July 31, 1865, son of Willis and Elizabeth O'Neal. In 1889 he married Helen Williams, who survives him. In his youth he served for twelve years with the Ocracoke Life Saving Station; later for many years he was a well known merchant, operating one of the Island's stores.

Mr. O'Neal was a charter member of the Masonic Order 245 of Swan Quarter, N. C.

Funeral services were held in the home with Rev. Robert L. Vickery, Jr., officiating; interment was in the old O'Neal graveyard. He is survived by his wife, Helen W. O'Neal, a daughter, Elizabeth Anne Howard, of Ocracoke, two sons, Horatio Willis O'Neal of Washington, D. C., and Earl Williams O'Neal of Philadelphia, Pa., and three grandchildren.
